With the Notables.

will have as guests this week Mr. and Mrs. William L. Elder of Indianapolis, will arrive Thursday afternoon. on of Mr. and Mrs. Elder and his bride were guests of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall several months

Mrs. Marshall will occupy a box at continental Hall Wednesday evening, when the President and others will speak in behalf of Berea College, in the Appalachian mountain range in

Miss Jane Gregory, daughter of the Attorney General and Mrs. Gregory, reached Austin, Tex., Friday morning, according to a telegram received by her mother, and will be away until early summer. She had to cancel a large number of engagements here and in adjoining cities before leaving, but great as was the number, even a longer list awaited her in Texas. Not only at Austin, where she will make her first visit, but in other cities, dinner parties and other events have been arranged and other events have been arranged in her honor, and her return to her native state will be made a festive Friends of Baron and Baroness Hengelmuller, who are in constant correspondence with them, have heard with deep sympathy of the mourning in their family. Baroness Hengelmuller lost her mother a few months ago, and since then the Baroness Palm, sister of the baron, has died.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan will entertain at dinner tomor-row night, which will be followed by a musical, when Mme. Fanny Bloomfield Zeisler will play.

The Japanese ambassador and Viscountess Chinda will go to New York Wednesday and the following day will attend the large entertainment given for the ambassador and Admiral Baron lewa by the Japanese Society of New York.

The Netherlands minister will return to Washington this afternoon from New York, where he went to attend to business in connection with his officia office and to meet social engagements. He attended the weiding of the Netherlands consul general at New York, Mr. Adrian van de Sande-Bakhuysen, and Mrs. Mary Hasell Borwick at St. Mark's Church.

Senator James A. Reed has been called to Kansas City, but Mrs. Reed, who has been confined to her home for some days by an indisposition, has remained here. She will entertain a house party of young people the middle of the week, and her niece, Miss Mary Louise Mansfield of lowa, will be of the number. Miss Mansfield has a wonderfully charming voice and is a student under a famous vocal teacher in New York. The other two guests are Miss Margaret Ingrham and Miss Stella Swoge of Kansas City, both of whom have a host of girl friends here from attending school. Miss Ingrham and Miss Swobe are now visiting schoolgirl friends at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Common and Their Wearers.

Some very handsome gowns were worn to the Dolly Madison breakfast the other day, and Mrs. Matthew T. Scott presided over one of the tables in a beautiful gown of steel beaded net. The fabric of the gown is entirely of beads, the net simply forming a foundation on which the pattern of bead work is wrought. This pattern is the French fleur de lys in its chief motif. The skirt is made with two full breadths of this beaded material back and front joined by panel

Mr. Giuseppe Catalani, one time coun-elor of the Italian embassy, and Mme. selor of the Italian embassy, and Mme. Catalani are expected to come to this country next month. Mme. Catalani and her mother. Mrs. Dimock, will spend some time in Washington during the visit, and the many friends of both are preparing to return the charming hospitality which they have always held out to their friends here. Mrs. Dimock returned here last week, but her visit was in connection with the Lincoln Memorial, and she has met only a few engagements. Just how long the Catalanis will remain in this country is not known, but the visit may be a lengthy one for Mme. Catalani on account of the war disturbances abroad.

The Austro-Hungarian ambassador and Stephen Hedry, second secretary, will return to Washington tomorrow from a visit of several days in New York. Mme. Dumba did not accompany the ambassador, but is daily seen on her long walks about the northwestern section of the city, and generally accompanied by one of her dogs. Mmg. Dumba left this country early last spring to look after her estate in Austria, but she will not do so this spring. The European war, which gave her a thrilling experience before she was able to rejoin the ambassador here, will keep her this side of the ocean for at least a few months longer.

which is displayed at the foot under the panel fringe.

The bodice, like the skirt is of the beaded material with a yoke of point applique. Bands of velvet edge the yoke and in front there is a decoration formed of site quilling of the same shade of steel gray. These quilling motifs again appear on top of the shoulders, joining bands of velvet ribbon. The lattice trimming is employed down the length of the elbow sleeve.

Mme. Dumba, wife of the Austria-Hungarian ambassador, takes her constitutionals

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt has gone to Florida to remain until some time in March, the length of her visit to de-pend much upon the weather. She is at the Ponce de Leon, St. Augustine, and her young daughter, Cornelia, is with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirk Porter and the daughter of the latter, Miss Hege-man, have gone to Jekyll Island, Bruns-wick, Ga., to remain for several weeks

When Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh leaves Washington March 10 for the Pacific coast she will be accompanied by Miss Virginia Mott. They will take a trip through the Grand Canyon and other interesting places on their way to San Francisco, and will see a good deal of California while attending the exposition

Miss Beatrice Clover, daughter of Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover, has gone to New York, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Dennis.

The secretary of the Senate and Mrs. Raker entertained the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall at luncheon at the Capitol yesterday.

Luncheons.

Miss Dorothy Smallwood was hostess at a large buffet luncheon yesterday, when the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Reginald Wyckliffe Geare Red roses and hearts formed the deco ration, and Mrs. Ordway and Miss Jessie Lane assisted in receiving.

Lane assisted in receiving.

After the luncheon the guests adjourned to the billiard room, where a moving picture of Miss Smallwood and Mr. Geare, and incidents of a picnic in the woods were shown.

The guests included Miss Marguerite Weller, Miss Ann Tuohy, Miss Iris Masters, Miss Marie Tunstall, Mrs. Harry L. Merring, Miss Dorothy Dobyns, Miss Edith McQuade, Miss Kathleen Anderson, Miss Lela Howard, Miss Marie Adams, Miss Nina Van Arsdale, Mrs. Malcolm Varnell, Mrs. Thomas Lloyd, Mrs. Thomas Forney, Mrs. Lewis Hillyer, Mrs. Edmund Carrington, Miss Anna Marr, Miss Marguerite Marr, Miss Maud Parker, Miss Amy Langley, Miss Courtney Wade, Miss Alma Trainer, Miss Cornelia Smith, Miss Frances Burt, Miss Helen Kimpnel, Miss Augusta Pearce, Miss Louise Floyd, Mrs. Dean Caldwell, Mrs. William Bevan, Miss Genevieve Frizzell, Mrs. Roy L. Neuhauser, Mrs. Edward Bur hard, Miss Natalie Blake, Miss Ruth Denham, Mrs. Carter Fort, Miss Helen Cooper, Mrs. W. N. Taft and Miss Katherine Birney.

Miss Marcie Murdock entertained at luncheon yesterday, when her guests were Miss Agnes Hart Wilson, Miss Knowland, Miss Elizabeth Kent, Miss Prouty, Mrs. Marcellus Th. npson, Miss Merriam and Miss Peary.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

MISS DOROTHY SMALLWOOD.

terial, back and front joined by panel effects on each side. On the right side the panel is of lattice design, done in velvet ribbon, an inch wide and of the same grayish shade as the beads. On the other side, two-inch bands of the beaded material joining the two main breadths of the skirt, and running up and down are bands of velvet ribbon, connecting the bands of bedded net. This panel is finished with a wide fringe at the bottom and is over an under panel of two-inch bands of the beaded material tom and is over an under panel of which is displayed at the foot under in a rather short black walking skirt, over which she wears a long broad-longer as it extends round the back.

It has a deep shawl collar, which covers her shoulders. Her hat is a black coast she will be accompanied by Miss Virginia Mott. They will take a trip through the Grand Canyon and other interesting places on their way to San Francisco, and will see a good deal of California while attending the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lombard postponed the musical which they were to have given yesterday until next Saturday.

Mrs. Schroeder, Wife of Rear Admiral Seaton Schroeder, U. S. N., retired, is in Newport for a stay with the daughter,
Mrs. Johnson, wife of Surgeon Moulton
K. Johnson, U. S. N., at their cottage in Kay Terrace.

Miss Beatrice Clover, daughter of
Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson
Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson
Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson
Clover, has gone to New York, where as does also her usphored being a jetblack Pekinese.

At the symphony concert the other afternoon Mme. Dumba, a guest of Count von Bernstorff, wore a cheery hat of cerise velvet cushion flowers.

Mrs. Britton Brown wears a black cloth suit made with a full gathered tunic over a short and narrow underskirt. Her hat was a high-crowned black silk model, with narrow brim, a style supposed to be popular with the witch of Salem, at any rate be-witching on Mrs. Brown, with its quaint stream ers hanking from the back, and a coquettish touch to the whole in a vividly contrasting note made by a single white gardenia in her furs.

The drawing rooms and dining room and the rector's study open off the hall on either side, the dominant note as far
at the symphony concert the other afternoon Mme. Dumba, a guest of Count von Bernstorff, wore a cheery hat the symphony concert the other afternoon Mme. Dumba, a guest of Count von Bernstorff, wore a cheery hat the little thoroughbre,
at the symphony concert the other afternoon Mme. Dumba, a guest of Count von Bernstorff, wore a cheery
hat the symphony concert the other afternoon Mme. Dumba, a guest of Count von Bernstorff, wore a cheery
hat of cerise velvet cushion
flowers.

Mrs. Britton Brown with the daughter, wis the little thoroughbre at the other aftern

brown and old blue crepe.

REGINALD WYCKLIFFE GEARE.

hat was a black velvet sailor with trimming of gourra feathers.

Miss Barbara Smith, who assisted her father, Rev. Dr. Ernest Smith, to receive the guests Worn at a at their at-home Rectory Warming. Tuesday afterthe way, was in the nature of a house warming for the new rectory, wore a charming gown of pale green silk, made with a full rippling skirt, trim-made with a full rippling skirt, trimmed about the bottom with a two-inch band of the same, and a long moyenage bodice with crystal trimming about the corsage.

Smart Walking down Connecticut avenue of a morning in a rather short black walking skirt, tover which she wears a long broadtail coat.

The latter is a cutaway model, being longer as it extends round the back.

A novel accessory was a double pleated waist about the waist land of white net about the waist land overdress of pearl embroidered tule.

made with a full rippling skirt, trimmed about the bottom with a two-inch band a two-inch band a two-inch band a long moyenage bodice with crystal trimming about the corsage.

Miss Helen Smith was equally attractive in an old-fashioned but dainty gown of pink silk, made empire, with abbrevlated waist. Bands of silk about the bottom of the gown formed the trimming, with a piping of lace as a heading for the bands.

A novel accessory was a double pleated frill of white net about the waist land.

velvet sailor trimmed with rosettes of fox fur, and her must matches her coat, as does also her dog, for that matter, the little thoroughbred being a jet-The new rectory is a charming man-has a close-fitting hip yoke attached to

Mrs. Burleson, wife of the Postmaster General, wore the other morning a gown of tete de other Smart Effects negre crepe de in Black.

Chine, a draped skirt, with girdle forming in its ends a full panel back, the girdle and panel being of brocaded brown and old blue crepe.

A close-fitting hip yoke attached to the upper part, which is severely tailored.

Her rather large, rolling-brimmed sailor is of putty color, faced with brown, the facing extending over on the upper side of the brim in a border about an inch and a half wide. The center of the crown is also of brown silk, shirred in to a round to fit the top of the crown.

brown and old blue crepe.

The bodice is a raglan design, the seams outlined with beaver fur. Fur also edges the V neck, and folds of old gold satin brought across the V opening simulates a vest. Mrs. Burleson's

Men's and Women's Remnant sizes 5.00. 6.00 and 7.00 Winter Boots, Colored Satin Slippers, "Banister" Patent Leather Pumps and High Shoes. Other values at 3.85

Arthur Burt Co., 1343 F

woolly dog makes an excellent foil in flawless white.

Mrs. Charles Hagner is one of the very first to appear in a straw hat, a round watteau effect, pinched to a point directly over the face and trimmed with a narrow tailored band of the same color, an old blue, with a small cluster of deep pink roses at one side.

Mrs. Hagner has a dancing frock of pink taffeta, made with a short, full skirt, pleated on the belt, instead of the usual gathering. The bodice is a simple little pointed affair, very becoming to the wearer, with quaint puff sleeves dropping off the shoulder.

**

Gossip of Society.

A famous author once claimed to read character by the books persons marginal notes.

Charming Home. thereon, by pictures on the walls and by the other details of homes of individuals, both as regards the architecture and the furnishings.

Yet it needs no student of humanity to acquaint even the most casual ob-

Mrs. Delos Blodgett wore to a morn- Mme. Hauge, widow of the former Noring party the other day a handsome wegian minister, is presided over by a

Mrs. George Bliss has announced the engagement of her daughter, Ruth Alice Bliss, and Capt. Lewis Hayes Watkins, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

The wedding will take place in the

Mrs. Dunn's Reception.

Mrs. Thomas B. Dunn entertained at server with the fact that the home of Black Velvet, vet. The gown is better and whose taste is exquisite.

Mrs. Drobe housest way a to a flore grown of black velocity and the grown of black velocity. The grown is a flore grown of black velocity with the grown of the g such a harmonious setting, even to a graceful in a wide skirt, dancing length. Mrs. Baldwin also wore yards of tulle around her low-neck waist, a gorgeous string of pearls and long drop earrings, an odd design of diamonds set in platinum.

Engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Gibbs have announced the engagement of their daughter, Rost, and Lucien J. Ker, lieutenant of engineers, United States coast guard, the wedding to take place April 20. Lieut. Ker has recently been transferred to Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Quick of Falls Church, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Northrup, and Mr. William W. Rucker place in June.

The engagement of Miss Mabel Faulkner of Arlington, Va., and Mr. Albert E. Sawyers of this city is announced the magagement of his daughter, Theresa Adelaide, and Walter Chauncey Depew Whitcraft, son of Walter C. Whitcraft and of the late Doretta Doremus Whitcraft of this city. The wedding will take place in hespring.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rachel Dalzell McQuiston of Pittsburch and Mr. Henry R. Kaspar of this city. The wedding will take place in the spring.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rachel Dalzell McQuiston of Pittsburch and Mr. Henry R. Kaspar of this city. The wedding will take place in the spring.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rachel Dalzell McQuiston of Pittsburch and Mr. Henry R. Kaspar of this city. The wedding will take place in the spring.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rachel Dalzell McQuiston of Pittsburch and Mr. Henry R. Kaspar of this city. The marriage will follow shortly.

Mrs. George Bliss has announced the Habersham Colquitt, formerly of Atlanta, but now of Washington.

Mrs. George Bliss has announced the correspond of her daughter, Ruth Alloe

The library, like the drawing room and dining room, is on the second floor. Directly be-The Living and low the former on Guest Rooms. the first or entrance floor is the music room, where a rised marble dals at one end is covered with a large tiger skin, and here the grand plane is placed. A marble fireplace and attractive chairs in the main part of th room invite one to linger, and it is this room that Mme. Hauge uses for a smoking room for her men guests when panies. The hostess wore a gown of yellow corded silk with an overdress of brown spangled net, and Mrs. Osler wore rose-color charmeuse and tulle.

Miss Francis Dunn assisted her mother in receiving and wore white satin with an overdress of pearl embroidered tulle.

Spring flowers formed the decoration in the dining room and the tea table had a centerpiece of these flowers.

Those in the receiving party were Mrs. James R. Mann, Miss Temple, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. George W. Fairchild, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Mrs. John Temple Graves, Mrs. James Parker, Mrs. Henry G. Danforth, Mrs. William Calder, Miss Margaret McChord, Miss Nancy Johnson, Miss Ruth Hitch-cock, Miss Helen McCumber, Miss Elsie Calder and Miss Dorothy Shuey.

The bed chambers are on the third floor, a suite for guests being done in rose color, and the mistress' own in pole blue. The architecture of the house inside and out is that of the French chateau, and the idea is faithfully carried out even to the bed in the blue room, which is on a raised platform with coronet drapery as a canopy, and the two steps of the platform with coronet drapery as a device which would delight the heart in any feminine breast. The walls are all in while paneled woodwork, and in each panel is a door which being opened displays shelves like those in a millinery shop, and on the shelves are laid the accessories of various costumes, for instance in one section the shelves are filled with corsage bou-

"The House of Quality"

Monday, February 22, Until 1 P.M., Select Any Winter Garment in the House. The Price Will Be Ridiculously Low.

This plain announcement should be of special interest to every woman. Especially so to those who are familiar with the standard of quality maintained by this specialty shop.

Suits Priced Up to $40.00. Choice

Suits and Dresses Priced Up to $20.00. $5.00

Silk, Velvet, Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats. All Remaining Up to $8.50. Choice 59C Half Day Waist Sale—Lingerie and Silk

Mayer Bros. & Co.

937-939 F St. N.W.

quets and boutonniers to correspond with various gowns, where each is im-mediately in view and in reach of the

Mrs. Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, tells with amusement of a gust Duehring, 27 O street northeast, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Duehring, Mr. and Mrs. E. Duehring and daughter Mr. and Mrs. E. Duehring and daughter, Mr. Carl Duehring, Mrs. Rechultz and daughter, Mr. Carl Duehring, Mrs. B. Secretary Bryan and asked him to play the part of host for her. His reply was most disconcerting, for help come himself, although having accepted previously, but that it was his painful duty to carry off her guest of honor to the White House. Other regrets followed, and at last on the nig. of the dinner there.

Burgress, Dr. Harry H. Hill, Mr. Pil-grim, Mr. Thomas Lonwoegt, Mr. Stam-ford, Mr. O'Dowd, Mr. James Lockhead, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. Moran and Mr. Jo-seph L. Reynolds of Alexandria.

Mrs. Frank G. Scott of 1454 Rhode Island avenue northwest was hostess at a dance Thursday night last for her niece, Miss Marguerite Jackson. Those present were Misses V. M. Jackson, Helen Strong, Helen M. Thomas, Catherine Peterson, Lulu Wood, Mrs. Daroch, Lucy Oliver, Charlotte Lockwood, Francis Drew, Marie Atchison, Edna Edwards, Marjorie Lockwood, Messrs. Joe Morgan, Marion Fisher, L. K. Younce, Gerald Parker, Seward Terry, J. Harper Snapp, J. R. Follinger, Charles Griffin, Douglas Love, John Martin, Mr. Garvey, Mr. Pidgeon, C. Ernst, R. E. Doleman and Percy Hickling. The chaperons were Mrs. Frank G. Scott, Mrs. Drew, Mrs. Love and Mrs. J. S. Martin. Mrs. Frank G. Scott of 1454 Rhode

Evening of Mirth and Music.

An entertainment will be given i Old Masonic Temple Wednesday evening, February 24, for the benefit of the Washington Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital. In the program, under the direction of Mr. M. E. Kahn, Mr. James A. White, jr.; Mr. Walter Marr, Mr. Niles Bryant, jr.; Mr. Dufour Brown, Mr. Arthur McCreight, Mr. William A. Morsell, Miss Alice Haliday Fuller, Mr. sell, Miss Alice Haliday Fuller, Mr. J. Carl Hess, Mr. Julian Brylawski, Mr. George A. Bentley, Mr. A. Theodore Howard, Prof. George Herbert Wells, Mrs. Breed, Miss Flora Strong, Tom Burnham, Harry Breed, Mr. Breed, Mrs. John Hill, Miss Esther Galbraith and Messrs. Edward E. Muth, John H. Hill and M. E. Kahn will take part. The program will begin promptly at 8:15, and after 10 there will be dancing in the hall.

A Surprise Party.

Wednesday evening, February about forty friends and relatives gath-Dinner Giving. herself, when she and the Secretary ing cards and dancing. At midnight a sisting will be the other members of the board—Mrs. William L. Brown Mrs. Perry Heath, Mrs. H. B. F. Man farland, Mrs. Thomas H. Mitchell, Mr. about forty friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Duehring, 27 O street northeast, Thomas, Mrs. Robert N. Page, Mrs. Woodbury Puisifer, Mrs. John S. Scully, Dr. Ada E. G. Wilkins, Mrs. Fred E. Wright and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Ray P. Teele, Mrs. Frank G. Carpenter, and Mrs. Thomas H. Mrs. Fred E. Wright and Mrs. Frank G. Carpenter, and Mrs. John B. Kendall of the board of trusters when sary. The evening was spent in playtees, with the wives of the other trus-tees, Mrs. J. A. Van Orsdel, Mrs. Law-rence Lee, Mrs. George W. White, Mrs.

Every garment that was bought for winter selling and a few spring "left-overs" are to be found in this "rummage."

In some cases you get sixty-five-dollar garments for ten dollars; new spring goods are crowding these out.

No C. O. D. None charged. None exchanged. No approval.

$3.50 For Winter Suits that were to $25.00 For Winter Coats that were to $20.00 For Winter Suits that were to $65.00

$10.00 For Winter Coats that were to $35.00 For Spring Suits that were to $60.00

$1.95 For Skirts that were $6.50 For Waists that were $2.50

$5.00 For Dresses that were to $25.00

$2.50 For Blouses and Waists that were $5.00 and $7.50

Open Till One O'Clock Monday

THE HOUSE OF FASHION

The New Spring Fashions

All the new styles and fabrics are here

The Smartest Suits in Town

Monday a Special Offering at $19.75, $25, $29.50, $35

The Fashionable Dresses For Street, Afternoon and Evening Wear

Exceptional Display at $16.95, $25 and $29.50

Distinctive Styles in Millinery Individuality in Trimmed Hats-One-of-a-kind Styles

See Our $5 and $7.50 Models

The Largest Waist Department in the City

Our Waists are known everywhere-values exceptional

Final Sale of Winter Garments

Regardless of Cost Get Here Monday Morning

95 Suits, Formerly $25 to $45,

To Close Monday, $5 and $10.

68 Coats, Formerly $15 to $40, To Close Monday, $5 and $10.

18 Afternoon Silk Dresses; formerly $40 and $50. To close...... $17.50 35 Separate Cloth Skirts; formerly to $11. To close...... $3.95

Big Waist Bargains-All on Tables

Beautiful New Styles in Crepe de Chine Waists..... $2.98 and $3.98